Current Issues in the Conduct of Survey Research

Dr. Tom W. Smith
NORC at the University of Chicago

November 7, 2018
11:45-12:45 pm
Oak Hall Room 236

Lunch will be provided
Seating is limited. Please RSVP to pamela.weathers@uconn.edu

Senior Fellow Tom W. Smith directs NORC at the University of Chicago's Center for the Study of Politics and Society. Since 1980, he has served as Director of the General Social Survey (GSS), one of NORC's most visible projects and one of the nation's most heavily utilized datasets. He is also co-founder of the International Social Survey Program (ISSP), former Secretary General of the ISSP, and currently serving on the ISSP Standing and Methodology Committees.

Tom W. Smith is the first recipient of the NORC at the University of Chicago’s Norman Bradburn Career Achievement Award. The award was established to recognize individuals who, through the course of working for NORC, have made a significant contribution to the field of social science research or methodology. In August 2014, Tom was elected to the Sociological Research Association (SRA), an honor society of leading sociological scholars.

Dr. Smith will also present "Antisemitism in Contemporary America" at 5:00 pm in the Dodd Research Center Konover Auditorium on November 7.

This event is co-sponsored by the Departments of Political Science and Sociology. If you require an accommodation to participate, please contact Pamela Weathers at pamela.weathers@uconn.edu or 860.486.2271.